

BOLAN NEWS

Mrs. Glennie Steiger, Corrae.

Last Friday the Rev. Kile family travelled to Paynesville, Minnesota, where they attended the wedding of the Rev. Eustace Renner and Zainabu Laura Roberts. Rev. Renner was a guest of the Kile's when he was touring the United States in behalf of the Board of Missions of the Evangelical United Brethren Church in California.

Both the bride and the bridegroom are natives of Sierra Leone, Africa, where they were educated in the E. U. B. schools. Some time after their conversion to Christianity they were both recommended for further study in America by an E. U. B. missionary, by Rev. Willert Zahl, who performed the ceremony in the church he is now serving. Rev. and Mrs. Zahl are the brides' godparents.

The Rev. Renner is a graduate of Evangelical Theological Seminary where he was ordained an Evangelical United Brethren minister, and has completed courses in the Harvard Divinity School. Mrs. Zainabu Renner is a graduate of Westmar College, LeMars, Iowa. They will return to Sierra Leone in March and engage in the religious education of their countrymen, but have expressed the desire to visit Bolan during February if time permits.

Honored guests were Dr. Richard E. Kelfa-Caulker, Ambassador of Sierra Leone to the United States; Dr. H. H. Kalas, Pres. of Westmar College; the Rev. J. K. Christin Renner, Chaplain of Howard University, Washington, D. C., who is a brother of the groom, and other students from Sierra Leone now studying in the United States.

Brenda Lee of Mason City spent Friday and Saturday with Ruth Colby. Mrs. Colby and Ruth, accompanied by Mrs. Jack Lee and Brenda, of Mason City, spent Sunday visiting with Mrs. Lee's sister and Mrs. Marie Gearhart at Eagle Grove, and the Alvin Kelling family at Goldfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Colby and Truman Johnson had Thanksgiving dinner with the Charles Colbys. David called home during the day. He has been promoted to recruit petty officer and is in charge of twelve men.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard DeMaris and Mr. and Mrs. John Engleby of Iowa Falls were dinner guests on Thanksgiving day in the Emil Johnson home at Lyle.

Mrs. Fred Paulsen spent Friday visiting Mrs. Robert Carlson in her home. Mrs. Clyde Burnett was an afternoon visitor.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Paulsen attended church services in Grafton on Thanksgiving day.

Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Young and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kenyon, both of Minneapolis, were Thanksgiving day guests in the Art H. White home. Kenyon's daughter stayed until Sunday with Carla.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hartman and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Seater and family were dinner guests Sunday in the Art H. White home. The occasion was to celebrate the birthdays of Robert Seater Mrs. Hartman and Mrs. White.

Mrs. Pearl Mahrenholz, Jo and Jerry, of Manly, and Mr. and Mrs. Axel Carlson were Thursday dinner guests in the Warren Perkins home. Carol Stapleton of Ventura, fiancée of Jerry, was also a guest. Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Trainer, Jim and Steve, were afternoon visitors. Mr. Trainer and Jim left with the group from North Iowa on Thursday evening for the Livestock Exposition in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bauers and family of Riceville, Mr. and Mrs. John Engleby of Iowa Falls, and Tom Beck were dinner guests in the parental Harold DeMaris home on Sunday.

Thursday dinner guests in the Art Carlson home were Mr. and Mrs. Daryl Carlson and family and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kenison.

Keith Kenison and family joined other members of the family for Thanksgiving supper in the Clarence Severson home Thursday evening.

Lester Larson of Mason City came to get his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marse Larson, on Thursday for dinner and to spend the day in their home.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Kenison were Thursday dinner guests in the home of Mrs. Nellie Seater in Northwood. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Logeman and Mr. and Mrs. Arleigh Thompson.

The Steiger family group gathered at the George Krumm home on Thanksgiving day for dinner and supper. Other guests were Arlene Jorde and Ervin Backhaus.

Guests for dinner and supper in the L. C. Kenison home on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Diedrich of Faribault, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kenison, and Mr. and Mrs. Glennie Steiger and girls.
